

Now Hiring!

Project Engineer

Work with an energetic, fast paced, and growing team to procure, plan, manage, and execute heavy civil and forestry related construction projects in the Northwest.

Job Duties and Responsibilities:

- Report to project manager and operations manager.
- Perform estimating quantity takeoffs and work with estimating team.
- Visit construction sites prior to construction to prepare estimates.
- Coordinate and communicate with owners, agencies, employees, company management, etc.
- Create and maintain construction budgets and schedules.
- Perform onsite quality control work.
- Perform various engineering tasks using UAV (drone), Robotic Total Station, road layout, etc.
- Maintain general project paperwork for project manager, i.e. RFI, submittals, change orders, invoices, etc.
- Communicate with existing and potential clients about upcoming projects.
- Assist with general construction management activities to support project manager and operations

Qualifications:

- Valid Drivers License (Required)
- Ability to communicate effectively (written & verbal) with others and work together with a team. (Required)
- Strong leadership, organization, and negotiation skills (Required)
- General understanding of Civil Construction practices and activities (Preferred)
- Bachelors degree in Construction Engineering Management or relatable field (Preferred)
- Ability to operate construction software systems such as Bluebeam, Microsoft Project, Excel, Word, HCSS Heavybid, Civil 3D, AGTEK, etc. (Preferred)

Competitive Salary

Plus, Complete Benefits Package Including:

Health Insurance Coverage, 100% Paid for Employee • Paid Time Off • Annual Company Training & Events
Paid Continuing Education • 401K with Employer Match • Use of Company Pick-up
A Great Working Environment!